

Things-to-do

One of the best Cancun attractions is the Caribbean Sea with its gorgeous white-sand beaches and turquoise waters.

Whale Sharks are the largest fish in the world measuring up to 40 feet. They are totally harmless as they only eat plankton and small fish. With an expert guide enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to swim with the world's largest fish while looking out for dolphins, manta rays and turtles.

Chichen Itza is probably the most important city of the Mayan Culture in the Yucatan peninsula and has the most amazing buildings of any other Mayan ancient cities. Chichen Itza is also the largest and most impressive of the Mayan ruins, it is a spectacular and mystical place to visit. Chichen-Itza (chee-chehn eet-sah) in Maya, was a sacred city of the Itza and the name literally means: "Mouth of the well of the Itza".

Leave Cancun crowds behind for a visit Isla Contoy and Isla Mujeres aboard a high-speed catamaran. Discover an untouched paradise island that's home to sandy white beaches, palm trees and an extraordinary population of migratory birds. Spend the day snorkeling along Isla Contoy's thriving coral reef, where you'll find bright tropical fish, swaying fans and sea stars.

There is an exciting world of sport fishing in Cancun, which offers an adventure like no other. The waters around Isla Majeures and Cancun are full and rich of a variety of fish such as mahi-mahis (dolphin fish), sailfish, marlin (Blue and White), great barracuda, king mackerel, wahoo, tunas (Black fin, yellow fin and skipjack), groupers, snappers, bonitos and many other species. For that reason, fisherman from all around the world, from beginners to experts, come to Fish off of the Yucatan Peninsula.
